

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Lana Adams
(248) 773-0219
ladams@cstttl.com

Prough Named Semi-finalist for Prestigious Award

FARMINGTON HILLS, MICH.—May 18, 2011—Jeffery S. Prough, CEO, President, and Founder of CST your Link to Life was named a regional semi-finalist for Ernst & Young's 2011 Entrepreneur of the Year Award.

Prough was nominated by the State of Michigan's Economic Development Corporation through their partnership and work together during the acquisition of GTL, Incorporated and Link to Life.

The awards are distributed annually in three rounds. The regional award winners will be announced on June 9 at Detroit's MGM Grand Casino. Regional winners will be invited to a National Awards ceremony held in November. National Award winners are then invited to the International Awards ceremony set to be held in Monte Carlo.

Semi-finalists are selected following a series of interviews with an independent panel of judges consisting of prior years' winners, regional business leaders, and academics.

Additional details and a complete list of nominees can be found at:

<http://eon.businesswire.com/news/eon/20110518006596/en/Entrepreneur/Michigan/Northwest-Ohio>

About Critical Signal Technologies, Inc.

Headquartered in Farmington Hills, Mich., Critical Signal Technologies (CST) is a leading provider of Personal Emergency Response Systems, medication management systems and TeleHealth solutions. Founded in 2006, privately-held CST operates fully redundant 24/7 Care Centers in Michigan and Massachusetts and serves individual and institutional clients throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

###